

Scott Montanye, CHST Safety and Risk Manager

Arizona Safety and Risk Management since 1991.

Scott Montanye is a results-focused, safety-conscious professional with over 12 years of progressively responsible experience in construction health & safety and risk management. Adept in analyzing programs for effectiveness and compliance with regulations or industry standards and implementing risk management best practices to improve compliance and reduce risks. Articulate communicator with an ability to work across departments or general contractor lines to implement corrective measures that prevent property, liability, and workers' compensation losses and reduce risk exposure.

Qualifications

(CHST) Certified Construction Health and Safety Technologist
(OSHA 500) construction certification
(OSHA 501) general industry certification

Both these certifications are from the University of California, San Diego California.

Current MSHA (Mine Safety and Health Administration) Certified Master Trainer from the Arizona State Mine Inspector.

American Red Cross certification.

Trained First Responder

Trainer for First Aid and CPR

Trainer for AED (Automated External Defibrillator)

Maricopa County Dust Compliance Trained

SSTA (Southwest Safety Training Alliance)

Certified Teacher

(OCIP) Owner Controlled Insurance Programs